

TABIDI:

While it is always sad to leave a place you've come to love so much, we are fortunate to have found the perfect place to celebrate Cheryl's 60th birthday.

THIS vacation was the ultimate in relaxation. I would tell you about all the side trips and activities, but we did very little of that and simply kicked back and enjoyed the glorious weather + the pool + great company of the other guests + and our great hosts, Bibi and Arnie.

They not only care about your comfort and are making sure everything is in order, so you will enjoy your stay, but also will become among your best friends if you give them the chance.

Arnie and Bibi, we will miss you but we will be back.

Thank you for opening up your wonderful facility.

B2, B&C, Omaha, Nebraska, Feb 2012

Thanksgiving Week here was fun and relaxing. Good times learning to surf at Coconut Harry's, good weather and a few earthquakes (minor) to add to the flavor.

Casa Banda is a great relaxing home base. Definitely will try to get back again.

Oh, and the Lime Sherbet at Robin's is stellar!

B2, J, San Jose, CR, Nov. 24, 2012

We have never stayed in a more beautiful and congenial resort or with more considerate, caring hosts. It was magical. The jungle, the pool, the view, the comfort (perfect accommodations) was a dream. What was truly awe-inspiring was the beautiful work of art that is Casa Banda.

Also, we enjoyed playing in the ocean waves, watching turtles lay eggs, crossing the river at low tide, the guided nature walk, the guided boat trip, sunset at Lagarta Lodge, and many restaurant meals in Nosara.

Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts.

B2, R & N, Vermont, March 16 – 25, 2013